

Ranking of the most in-demand study programs and higher education institutions according to the results of the Unified National Examinations 2020 - which educational program and higher education institution the entrants choose as the first number.

According to the National Examinations Center (NAEC), the most demanded study programs are known, according to the first choice made by the entrants.

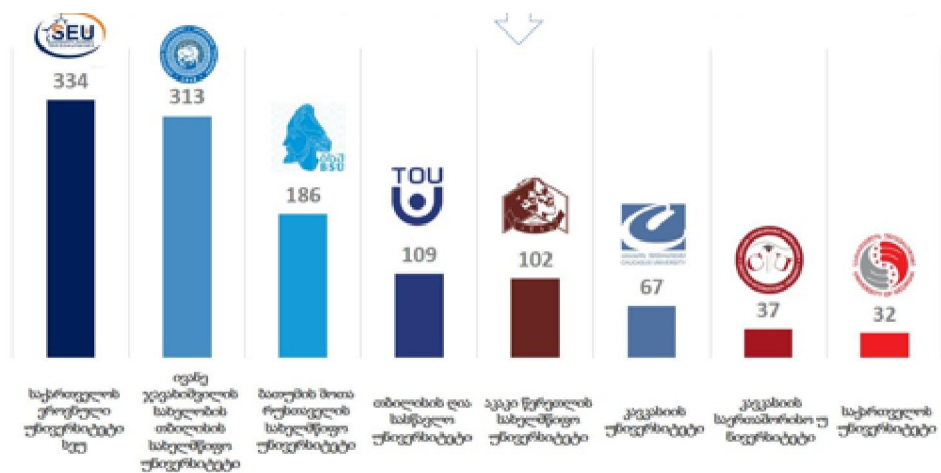

The most in-demand higher educational institutions with the first choice in the Law Program at the 2020 Unified National Examinations.

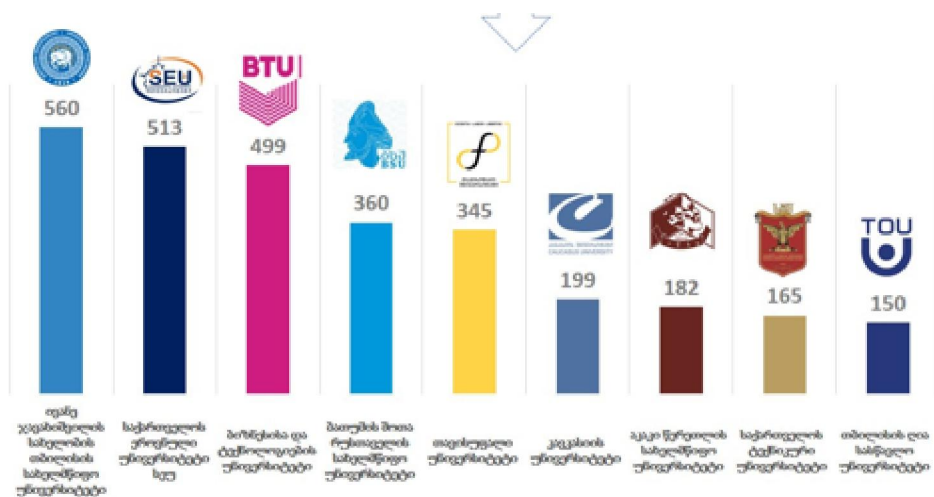

The most in-demand higher educational institutions with the first choice in the International Relations Program at the 2020 Unified National Examinations.

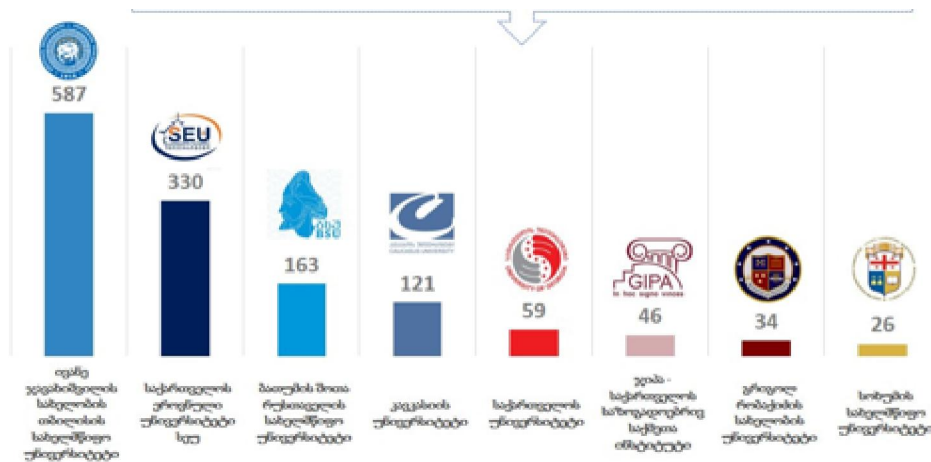

The most in-demand higher educational institutions with the first choice in the Tourism Program at the 2020 Unified National Examinations.

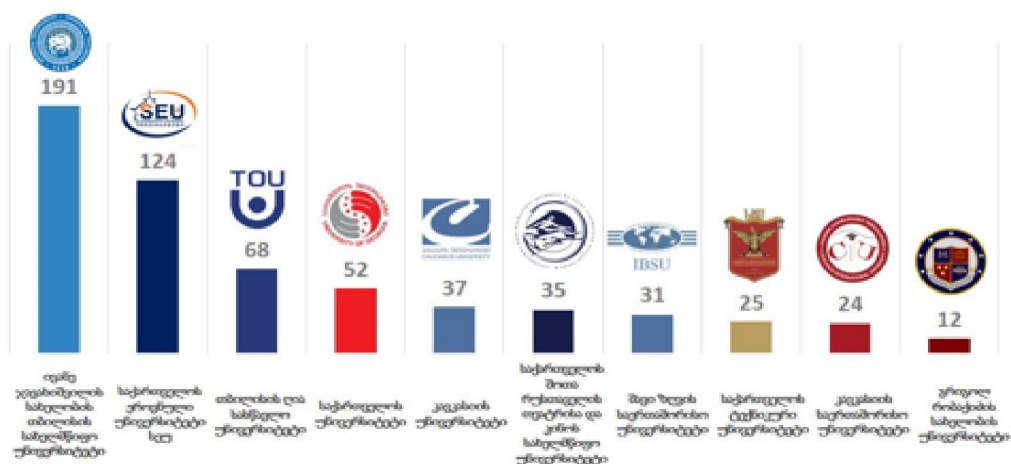

The most in-demand higher educational institutions with the first choice in the Program of Business Administration, Management, Finances at the 2020 Unified National Examinations.

The most in-demand higher educational institutions with the first choice in the Psychology Program at the 2020 Unified National Examinations.

The most in-demand higher educational institutions with the first choice in the Journalism Program at the 2020 Unified National Examinations.

Also interesting is, the ranking of the most demanded private higher educational institutions as the first choice by the entrants.

The most in-demand higher educational institutions with the first choice at the 2020 Unified National Examinations.

